

The time which God in his mercy now grants you is of the greatest value.

St Alphonsus Liguori

A sure way to prepare well for our deaths is staying close to Jesus with prayer, in the sacraments and also in the practice of charity...

One who practices mercy does not fear death.

Pope Francis > General audience Nov. 2103 > Catechesis on the Creed

The sick man must not fear when he is tempted to lose confidence; for, if he has sinned, Christ has suffered and paid for him.

St Philip Neri > Maxims

Let us prepare ourselves at all times for that step which will bring us into the eternal presence of the Most Holy Trinity.

Furrow > Beyond Death > Number 881

“... I am ready to die when you want, where you want, and as you want.”

Blessed Alvaro del Portillo > Saxum > P. 152

Time is short, death is certain, and eternity long.

Blessed John Henry Newman

Any honourable work can be prayer and all prayerful work is apostolate.

In this way the soul develops a unity of life, which is both simple and strong.

Christ is passing by > The Christian vocation > Number 10

My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

1 John 3:18

It is the call and the will of the Lord that we bring holiness to the environment in which we live and that we become holy ourselves.

Cardinal F.X.N Van Thuan > Prayers of Hope > The Secret of Success

God has created me to do him some definite service. I have a part in this great work; I am a link in a chain; a bond of connection between persons.

He has not created me for naught.

Blessed John Henry Newman

Christian virtue is a question not so much of doing as of being... As you are, so you will act; love affects one's being, and therefore, in consequence, one's behaviour.

Gerald Vann > The Divine Pity > p.24

... we are all equally called to sanctity.

Christ is passing by > The Great Unknown > Number 134

You are very welcome to take this copy away with you if you would like to.