

Christ is the master of humility; this is why only the humble can traverse the path of charity

St. Augustine > Enarratio in Psalmum 141,7 > In Johannis Evangelium Tractatus, pro.

The instruments of God are always humble.

St John Chrystostom > Homilies on St Matthew > 15

You... proud? About what?

The Way > Humility > Number 600

God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble.

Jas 4:6

A man would do nothing if he waited until he could do it so well that no one could find fault.

Blessed John Henry Newman

.. with humility comes wisdom.

Proverbs 11:2

My daughter, let three virtues adorn you in a particular way: humility, purity of heart and love.

St Maria Faustina Kowalska > Diary > Number 1779

I am indifferent to either praise or blame. If people praise me, they only tell me what I should be; if they blame me, I am told what I really am.

St John Bosco

My children, our love is not to be just words or mere talk, but something real and active.

1 John 3:12

Every day we have a treasure to distribute. If we don't give it, we lose it. If we share it, Our Lord multiplies it.

In conversation with God > Advent > 21 December p.195

Your charity must be adapted and tailored to the needs of others... not to yours.

Furrow > Friendship > Number 749

Being at the disposal of others and of Christ, however, does not consist in giving everything but, rather, in allowing Christ to take everything.

Pope Benedict XVI > Deus Caritas Est 41

The secret that ennobles the humblest, even the most humiliating thing, is Love.

The Way > Love of God > Number 418

... it is He who continues to do the work through each one of us.

Furrow > Fishers of Men > Number 189